Company Charges & Procedures

Why Sell with Donelly Auctions? Our Company was established in 1972 and we have a professional team of auctioneers and valuers ready to assist for all your valuation and selling requirements. We conduct antique and collectors auctions on a Sunday every 6-8 weeks on average, dates and times can be sourced from our website www.donellyauctions.com.au, we have over 7000 buyers following our auctions via social media and direct marketing. We will sell your unwanted items with ease at fair market value taking out all the stress of private buyers, dealers, advertising and sitting around all weekend for potential customers and you will receive payment into your account within seven working days of the items being sold - Auctions are simple and if you have a desirable item many of our buyers will bid it up. We advertise extensively online, eastern states, globally at times and throughout traditional methods such as newspapers.

With our 40 plus years of experience in auctions and our wide following you will be pleasantly surprised by our results.

We charge 22% commission and a one off $5 handling fee for the whole consignment.

We will require a full name address and contact details in writing agreeing to our terms along with your account name, BSB and bank details in order to receive payment, we do not issue company cheques. Please note all services attract GST.

All transport can be arranged for you at your expense via Company contact-

Shaun's Removals comes highly recommended - two x strong men with a small & large enclosed truck from single items to a house full of contents.

Contact Shaun Little 0400 223 343 $80 - $120 per hour fully insured.

This company is independent and we accept no liability for damage or charges, it is best to contact Shaun directly to gather the relevant information or feel free to book your own means of transport ensuring we are advised of dates and times and supplied with the above information, otherwise your load may well be refused. Please also advise the driver on booking if you have any special packing requirements or difficult access such as stairs and parking facilities.

Disclaimer:

We do not accept items unsighted, they must be sighted via our email service or a previous valuation. Estimate prices given via photographs are subject to change on arrival if damage, quality, age, condition is not advised with initial email or poor quality images are received. If without prior arrangement and any additional stock must be vetted by one of our valuers, items received and are deemed unsaleable or just not suitable will be refused and returned to original destination on delivery or simply sent to the tip at additional costs to the Client. We are a quality controlled antique and collector's auction house and we do not accept broken, damaged goods or general household items. We are open 9.30 am -4.00 pm Mon - Fri or by appointment if you wish to see a Valuer.

Items consigned to auction and received that are withdrawn or reserve prices changed against Managements appraisal will attract a charge of 30% commission of the estimate or reserve. If unsold or withdrawn from auction and not collected within two weeks after that date, they will be sold unreserved in the following auction. We cannot supply any form of storage.
